“My house.....stands on a lake, but it stands also on the sea – waterlilies meet the golden seaweed. It is as if, in the faery land of Connemara at the extreme end of Europe, the incongruous flowed together at last, and the sweet and bitter blended. Behind me the island and mountainous mainland share in a final reconciliation, at this, the worlds end”

- Oliver St. John Gogarty

Renvyle House Hotel & Resort is a four star, historic, family owned, country house hotel; situated on the shores of the Wild Atlantic Way in north west Connemara.

It was first opened as an hotel in 1883 and is located on a 150 acre estate which includes a private lake, a beach, woodlands, gardens and numerous activities on the grounds. Renvyle House is an award winning hotel for hospitality and dining over the years with a warm welcome for every guest, delicious food and comfortable bedrooms.

Located on the Wild Atlantic Way, Renvyle House collaborates with other local activities and places of interest for you to explore and enjoy during your stay. Within half an hour from the hotel there are a variety of activities and places of interest including the Connemara National Park, Killary Fjord Boat Tours with cruises along Ireland's only Fjord, a working sheep farm experience, Killary Adventure Centre, the Country Museum at Derryinver, day trips to Inish Bofin departing Cleggan pier and Kylemore Abbey & Victorian Walled Gardens.

There are great walks along quiet roads, hill walking or mountain walks. There are also spectacular beaches along this stretch of Connemara with plenty of activities available; some include a scuba dive centre, equestrian breaks, kayaking, sea angling and fly-fishing.
